Monroe County Fiscal Court

SOCIAL HOST ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE PROHIBITION AGAINST HOSTING, PERMITTING, OR ALLOWING GATHERINGS WHERE MINORS CONSUME ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES.

WHEREAS, Monroe County Fiscal Court, pursuant to the powers delegated to it by the Kentucky Constitution has the authority to enact laws that promote the public health, safety and general welfare of its residents; and

WHEREAS, Monroe County, acting through the Fiscal Court finds that parties, gatherings, or events [gatherings] on private property where alcoholic beverages are consumed by minors, who are under the legal age (21-years-old) to consume alcohol in the State of Kentucky are harmful to the minors and a threat to public health, safety, quiet enjoyment of residential property, and general welfare; and

WHEREAS, the Fiscal Court finds that minors often obtain alcoholic beverages at gatherings held at private residences or other private property, places, or premises, including rented commercial premises, which are under the control of a person who knows or should know of the consumption of alcoholic beverages by minors; further, the Fiscal Court finds that persons responsible for such gatherings often fail to take reasonable steps to prevent the consumption of alcoholic beverages by minors at these gatherings; and

WHEREAS, control of gatherings on private property where alcoholic beverages are consumed by minors is necessary when such activity is a threat to the peace, health, safety, or general welfare of the public; and

WHEREAS, peace officers making responses to the locations of such gatherings where alcoholic beverages are consumed by minors causes a drain on public safety resources and in some cases, leaving other areas of the County with delayed police response; and

WHEREAS, problems associated with gatherings where alcoholic beverages are consumed by minors are difficult to prevent and deter unless peace officers, including the Monroe County Sheriff's Department, have the legal authority to arrest offenders and direct the host to disperse the gathering; and

WHEREAS, police ability to abate gatherings where alcohol is consumed by minors on private property will result in a decrease in abuse of alcohol by minors, physical altercations and injuries, neighborhood vandalism, criminal activity, motor vehicle accidents, and excessive noise disturbance thereby improving public safety; and

WHEREAS, the Fiscal Court finds and declares that the consumption of alcohol by minors impacts the health, safety, and general welfare of Monroe County's citizens and communities; and

WHEREAS, the Fiscal Court finds and declares that the purpose of this ordinance is to protect public health, safety, and general welfare, to enforce laws prohibiting the consumption of alcohol by minors, to provide law enforcement the means to disperse parties, gatherings or events on private property wherein minors are possessing or consuming alcohol and to hold adults accountable when their action either affirmatively or through acquiesce permit minors to possess or consume alcohol on private property; and

WHEREAS, Monroe County Fiscal Court intends that criminal liability apply to any person in control of private property who knowingly hosts, permits, or allows a party, gathering, or event where minors are present and an alcoholic beverage is being consumed by any minor, where the person in control of the private property knows or reasonably should know that a minor consumed an alcoholic beverage; and

WHEREAS, further Monroe County Fiscal Court intends to impose a duty on any person having control of any residence or other private property, place or premises, including any commercial premises, who knowingly hosts, permits, or allows a party, gathering, or event, to take all reasonable steps to prevent the consumption of alcoholic beverages by any minor at the gathering;
